

NUCMC Catalog Record

Creator: Jones family.

Title: Jones family collection.

Date Created: [1838]-[ongoing].

Extent: 3 folders.

Location: Smith Library of Regional History, Oxford, Ohio.

Summary: Includes deeds for property in Oxford Township, Ohio, pension records, marriage records, newspaper and magazine articles, photographs, and maps. Persons represented include John S. Jones (1819-1898) and his father Jack Jones, both of Butler County, Ohio, and actively involved in the Underground Railroad, and Simon Miller, of Oxford, Ohio, and civil rights advocate for African Americans. Also contains items documenting that two of John S. Jones's sons fought for the Union Army in the 54th and 55th Massachusetts Volunteer Regiment.

Subjects: African American abolitionists -- Ohio.
African Americans -- Ohio -- Butler County -- History.
Real property -- Ohio -- Oxford (Township)
Underground railroad -- Ohio.
Butler County (Ohio) -- Genealogy.
Butler County (Ohio) -- History.
United States -- History -- Civil War, 1861-1865.
Massachusetts -- History -- Civil War, 1861-1865.
Jones, Jack, -- of Butler County, Ohio.
Jones, John S., -- 1819-1898.
Miller, Simon, -- of Oxford, Ohio.
Miller family.
United States. -- Army. -- Massachusetts Infantry Regiment, 54th (1863-1865)
United States. -- Army. -- Massachusetts Infantry Regiment, 55th (1863-1865)